

Richard McKenna Charter High School

Richard McKenna Charter High School is an Idaho public charter high school authorized by the Public Charter School Commission in 2004, and accredited by the Northwest Accreditation Commission.

The mission of RMCHS is to help students become self-reliant by teaching them how to think, learn, communicate, and respect one another.

RMCHS serves the needs of approximately 50 students grades 9-12 through its Onsite Program in Mountain Home, Idaho, and over 700 regular-ed and at-risk students throughout Idaho through its Online Program.

All of our programs are tuition free and publicly funded*.

Onsite Program

The purpose of the RMCHS Onsite program is to serve the needs of youth in Mountain Home, Idaho, who have completed the 8th grade and pre-algebra, and who are younger than 21.

Online Program

RMCHS provides online courses during the fall, winter, and summer sessions. Any Idaho resident who has completed the 8th grade and pre-algebra, is younger than 21 and not enrolled full-time in another program may enroll in RMCHS online courses during the fall/winter sessions.
