

K-8 Principal
Richard McKenna Charter Schools
Mountain Home, Idaho

Position Details:

Richard McKenna Charter Schools is seeking a school leader for our K-8 campus in Mountain Home, ID. The school is a Montessori and Project-based Learning school.

This opening is available now and until the position is filled with the best and qualified candidate and will currently serve approximately 220 students. At our K-8 school the staff share a collective dedication to fostering an environment for inclusion and learning. Our passion is preparing students to be academically and socio-emotionally ready for sustained success in a global economy.

The ideal School Leader who leads our K-8 school is a Montessori/Project-based educator with an ability to utilize data for decision making, someone who is willing to do anything that they would ask someone else to do, is a servant leader, a quality communicator, and fully invests in staff, students, and families to maintain a positive school culture.

REQUIREMENTS:

Minimum Requirements:

- Current Idaho School Administrator certification or ability to obtain administrator certification.
- Knowledge and skills working with students who might have additional challenges beyond education.
- Effective use of technology as a means of analyzing academic achievement data and as a tool to aid in communications with stakeholders.
- Excellent verbal and written communication using proper grammar and vocabulary.
- Exemplary work habits verified by previous employers.
- Strong interpersonal skills.

Desired Requirements:

- Successful experience as a teacher or as an instructional leader.
- Previous experience in a school leadership role.
- Knowledge/experience with Montessori Philosophy and Project-based learning or a strong desire to become knowledgeable of the school programs.